About me

---

Varun Naren

---

Baker, Photographer, Artist, Coder

A 25-year-old young confident, witty adult with an infectious smile I am an artist, baker and chef, who is currently into drawing caricature portraits. I am also aiming to be a professional photographer.

---

I enjoy reading and writing but am also computer and technology savvy. Currently learning advanced coding to make websites. Besides coding I enjoy making videos using Canva.

---

Teaching is also something I am passionate about whether art or baking and have conducted virtual workshops. I am conducting doodling workshops too.

---

My strengths include my curiosity to learn new things, being diligent, working hard and adherence to time deadlines.

---

I have been diagnosed with Fragile X syndrome, a single gene cause of autism and intellectual disability

ARTIST STATEMENT

Varun's footprints in the art world started young. As a quiet, shy boy, his communication came from his drawings, his emotions through the imaginary world of Disney cartoons. This translated later as a young adult into more refined drawings, colors as a form of expression and emotions.

Over the years, his art has translated to bold, confident line drawings emphasizing figurative bold portraits.

He is a visual artist taking inspiration from the master's and giving his own signature style to it through definite strokes giving a sense of authority and command over his works.

His works speak emotions. His love for nature and empathy to animals, especially dogs and horses define a lot of his artworks, be it through his pencil or his photography.

His artworks have been displaying at some galleries, offices, the eCAPA exhibition at vis a vis STIR art gallery which have been selected by none other than Mr. Bose Krishnamachari, at NGMA New Delhi as part of an inclusive exhibition and at the prestigious National Museum ,New Delhi .

His thematic composition based on his favorite artwork "The Last Supper" translated him doing different versions of it.

He is open to trying new mediums, themes as a way of expression and enhancing his artistic abilities.

His style incorporates bold strokes, emotions, feelings and a sense of positivity. He believes in the world being a happy place for all and that spark shows in his artworks too.
